

UNDERWOOD WANTS COURT OF RAILWAYS

Alabama Senator Urges Commission With Full Power to Act Upon All Questions Involved.

ONLY WAY TO GET JUSTICE

Investigations Academic Without Authority to Carry Out Results—Public Must Be Protected.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Creation of what in effect would be a supreme court of railways, vested with the broadest of powers and including that of fixing wages and working hours of the men, was advocated by Senator Underwood of Alabama, in a speech in the senate today.

"Such a tribunal," said Senator Underwood, "must not only have the power and be prepared to do what is right and just by the labor employed on the railroads, but must have authority and power to see that property is not confiscated by its decisions. For, should you confiscate the property of the transportation companies of America, you would break down the channels of transportation as effectively as you would break them down in a strike, with the resultant injury to the people of the United States. A tribunal of this kind must also have the authority and opportunity to consider the rights of the shippers and travelers of America, who in the last analysis will bear any increased burden that falls on the carriage of property or persons over the transportation lines. This tribunal must have authority and power to protect the rights of the whole people of the United States against the recurrence of lockouts and strikes."

Must Have Power.

"If you want a final and just solution of such a controversy, you are practically driven to leaving the decision to a government commission which has full and ample opportunity to investigate rates, the earnings of the transportation companies, the cost of living, the burden that rests on the shipping public and a fair, just, and living wage for the men and to how great an extent a fair, just and living wage may be increased to enable the toilers to secure the higher ideal of life and living second, how far this charge can be placed on the capital of the corporation without breaking it down, destroying the value of its equipment, bankrupting the investors and taking away from the investing public a fair return for capital invested; third, how far an increased charge for labor, interest or supplies can be handed down to the shipping public without doing injustice to the shipper and traveler and without becoming a menace to the development of the industry of the country."

Must Have Powers.

"All of these questions must be determined by a court or an independent commission, but the findings, except so far as they may determine the rate for transportation, that must be paid by the railroad companies and the rate of wages and working hours of the men must also have the power to reflect its findings into the rates charged for the transportation of persons and property over the railroads."

William D. Jamieson, director of finance for the democratic national committee, has set himself to the task of raising $5,000,000 from 1,000,000 people to run the party's 1920 campaign. In 1912 between 75,000 and 85,000 people subscribed $1,100,000. In the 1916 campaign 30,000 people gave $2,500,000, gave $2,500,000.

Charge That Chicago Women Are Immodestly Dressed Brings a Denial

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—The charge that Chicago women and their dress are the cause of men flirting with them, made recently by Mrs. George Jamieson, whose husband was held to court on charges of Leona Hall, an actress, who claimed Jamieson "flirted" with her, is being resented by the women of Chicago. They claim that styles never were more modest and sensible than at the present time.

Mrs. Heaton Owsley of Glencoe, in discussing the question, said: "Chicago women not only dress sensibly but modestly. Some extremists there are of course, but they are in such a minority as to make Mrs. Jamieson's charge absolutely ridiculous."

Mrs. Edward Leight, said to be one of Chicago's best-dressed women, said: "A trim ankle is never immodest. Decollete is very much lower in Paris and skirts ridiculously higher."

Amelia Sears, welfare worker and official of the Associated Charities, said Mrs. Jamieson's statement gave her "quite a chuckle" and continued: "No matter what the dress of our women happens to be a man should not be so weak as to have such a statement made in defense of his succumbing to a temptation to risk a flirtation."

NEGRO LEADER ASKS END OF BITTERNESS

Dr. Moton, Successor of Booker Washington, Declares Hatred Never So Intense as Now.

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 4.—Dr. Moton, successor of Booker Washington, declared in a statement today regarding the recent riots in several cities in the north and south that it was difficult to understand why there should be so much apparent sympathy and bitterness on the part of both the white and negro races.

"I have never known the colored people to have more intense feelings toward the white people than at the present," Dr. Moton said, "and I have never known a time when there was less reason to know a crime when the white people of the north, not only the leading white people, but the average white man, was more anxious than at present to be absolutely fair and just to the negro to see to it that the colored race in the south had better school facilities, better railroad accommodations, and adequate protection under the law. This is also true of the north."

"There was never a time when the south and the north too, saw more clearly the value of the negro as an economic factor in industrial operations. I never knew a time when southern white people felt more ashamed and humiliated at the actual crime of lynching than they do today, and I never saw a time when they were more determined to put down mob rule, whether aimed at black or white, than now. Many of the leading papers of the south are speaking out as never before against all forms of injustice and unfairness to the colored race."

"We, north and south, should make up our minds that there is room enough, there is opportunity enough, colored and white, to work peacefully and harmoniously in America, each living his life as he chooses, and each enjoying the same rights and privileges as the other, and I hope that our leaders in both white and black will get together and smooth out the ruts that are now running so deep. America can teach the world that black people and white people can live peacefully and harmoniously in our great country."

Voluntary contributions will be accepted at once for this project, he explained. No intensive solicitation or request for funds is intended at this time.

No detailed plans have yet been made, Colonel Thompson explained, for the other proposed memorial, which include a national monument at Washington and the endowment of an incorporated society for the perpetuating of the former president's ideals.

Pershing Nomination Confirmed by Senate Amid Much Applause

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Amid applause from senators and spectators the senate today in open executive session unanimously confirmed the nomination of John J. Pershing to the permanent rank of general of the regular army as a reward for his service as commander of the American expeditionary force. As a mark of special honor a rising vote was taken.

The special act revising the rank for General Pershing makes the title "general of the army of the United States" and, according to an official who took part in the ceremony, said that the rank has not been held since the death of General Sheridan.

GUARD COMMANDER SAYS STRICT ORDERS NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Military commanders have the power to bring summary justice to men who show a tendency to quit their commands on the eve of battle, Gen. John F. O'Hara, commanding the New York national guard, declared today before a senate military administration committee. The O'Hara plan, which proposes a general reorganization of the system of military justice. Hope of reward, pride and patriotism, he said, are among the things that stimulate soldiers to courage in battle, but under them must lie the knowledge that swift retribution will follow any shirking of the fight.

General O'Hara was a member of the board which has submitted a report endorsed by the war department proposing modification of the articles of war and the court-martial system, but disapproving the radical changes outlined in the Chamberlain bill.

ASK FOR FAMILY COURTS TO MEET DIVORCE MENACE

HARTMAN, Sept. 4.—The establishment of "family courts" to meet the menace to the marriage relation presented by the divorce evil, was recommended by Chief Justice Charles W. Hoffman of the court of domestic relations at Cincinnati, Ohio, in an address last night before the American institute of criminal law and criminology in session here in connection with the annual meeting of the American bar association.

"There will be more than 40,000 divorce cases filed before the courts of the land this year and something must be done to save our family life," the greatest evil of the day, we have," he continued. "The family unit should be an extension of the principle upon which juvenile courts are founded."

Chief Justice Hoffman, former secretary of state, speaking before the judicial section of the bar association, said he favored wiping out the "business" of attempting to bring about justice by statute, and that he believed it best to leave it to the judges to do justice.

"A few lawyer rules embodying the fundamental principles are all that is necessary," he added. "Out of the great tangle with legislation today it is that it does not permit the judges to do justice."
